

For access to a national network of commercial real estate buyers, sellers, tenants, landlords, developers and brokers, you need only one contact.

The professionals at the Perry Group have the tools and experience to market and network commercial real estate on a national level. Combine this ability with an intense understanding of local market dynamics and the result is successful real estate transactions.

The organizations we choose to actively participate in and affiliations we have are not simply trade organizations. Membership is based on experience, level of sales, continuing education requirements and strict ethical standards. The average real estate professional cannot just join these organizations.

Successful commercial real estate transactions do not ordinarily occur “in a vacuum”, it takes networks, relationships and knowledge of what to do with them to ensure success. No other commercial real estate firm in the market’s which we operate can provide the access to these networks. Our commitment is to providing the highest level of service to our clients with these tools we have invested in.
